

We Celebrate the Fourth On Hallowed Ground

On Friday evening, if the weather is fine, it may be expected that many thousands will throng the playground to witness the fireworks displays which have long been associated with this Borough in the observance of Independence Day. There is a great deal to conjure with in each of these recurrent celebrations.

First of all, it is good to realize that Narberth has provided itself with a fitting scene for these patriotic demonstrations, nearly eight acres of beautiful sward, where well-ordered Americans can assemble in comfortable circumstances to pay tribute to those things which set the Fourth of July off in such a distinctive manner on the American calendar. It is also particularly appropriate that such annual gatherings shall occur here, for it was in this neighborhood that a great deal of Revolutionary history was made and all about us the land is hallowed because of the direct part it played in the success of the hard-bitten American forces.

Not all of those who occupied this soil, however, in those far-off days, contributed to the cause of an independent country, for a Tory is a Tory at any time of life, and he is always fearful of what a new regime will mean to his personal fortunes. Perhaps nothing is gained by stirring up the unsavory episodes which occurred here and which added pitifully to the difficulties of Washington and his troops, but it might be well if tomorrow's reflections centered on the fact that the victory came chiefly as the result of sacrifices of plain men, who sensed in their own untutored way exactly what was at stake, and who followed their inspired leadership in a manner which has made the American struggle for freedom one of the most glorious narratives in all human experience.

So then, as the citizens assemble Friday evening the occasion will be regarded as a great deal more than a mere "fireworks show," for as the rockets burst in the air and the myriad shells adorn the summer skies in far-flung design and gorgeous array, the unbroken link with the illustrious auspices of the Nation's Birth is bound to be renewed in precious memory and man's inalienable rights to Life, Liberty and Pursuit of Happiness shall be cherished in devout manner as direct gifts from God, not to be diminished nor destroyed no matter what force of evil comes to assail them.

Town Talk

Magistrates Walter B. Lowmes, Jr., of Ardmore, and Otto Duer, of Narberth, were men without a country for more than an hour last Wednesday. . . . They were returning by plane from a Magistrates' Convention in Philadelphia when the plane's landing gear stalled and they circled Philadelphia for almost an hour and a half while the co-pilot climbed down into the plane's inner workings to crank the gear by hand. . . . then when the gas was gone, and not knowing for sure whether or not the gear was down, the pilot made a perfect landing. Said Lowmes "You'll never get me off the ground again."

Miss Annemarie Amram, of 30 Cricket Ave., Ardmore, will spend the summer on the Kananaakis Ranch, in the Canadian Rockies. . . . She's head of the Kindergarten Department at the Agnes Irwin School.

We're mighty impressed with 15-year-old Richard Foulke. . . . He's managing an Army-Navy surplus store in Bala-Cynwyd, and with the aid of his sister Betsy, who helps out one day a week, he's making out very well. . . . He opened the store at 306 Levering Mill Rd., over the B-C Beverage Company, on May 7 while still a sophomore at Lower Merion. . . . He's son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Foulke, of 325 N. Bowman Ave., Merion.

We hear that Detective Sergeant James Smyth, of the Lower Merion Police, treated his co-detectors and patrolmen to ice cream Monday night.

Wednesday will be a red letter day for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morrison Chapin, of 438 Bryn Mawr Ave., Cynwyd. . . . Their daughter Marjory will arrive aboard the United Freighter Cape Ana, from Montevideo, South America.

The Samuel J. McCartneys son, Sam, Jr., will not miss out on Narberth's Fourth of July celebration this Friday. . . . he's coming home for the week-end from Dickinson

Democrats Select County Ticket

Endorse Mensch and Keenan for Nomination as Commissioners

Unanimous endorsement of County Commissioner Raymond K. Mensch, Gilbertsville, for re-election, and for Owen J. Keenan, 513 Ryers Ave., Cheltenham Village, Cheltenham Township, as his running mate for the Democratic nomination for County Commissioner, was given last week.

The action was taken at a meeting of the executive committee of the Democratic County Committee, held at Democratic Headquarters, Swede St.

Members of the committee, lauding the successful leadership Mr. Mensch has given the party, took the action of endorsing him for the office, with Mr. Keenan as his running mate, before either had made formal announcement of their intentions to seek the office.

The executive committee, in addition to the two leading candidates for the Primary slate, also endorsed these other candidates:

Attorney Wellington H. Rosenberg, Jr., for District Attorney. Norman T. Fulmer, Spring Mount, for Register of Wills. Margaret F. Doering, Bethayres, for Clerk of Courts.

Announcement will be made at a later date of candidates for all other county "row" officers. A full slate will be put in the field, it was said. Mr. Mensch first was elected Minority County Commissioner in 1939 and in the intervening years, as a member of the board.

Former Yankees Pitcher Jailed

Royden R. Sherid, 40-year-old former New York Yankees pitcher, was in trouble again this week.

Sherid, whose escapades caused his suspension from the ball club which, reportedly, used to pay him $1800 a week, lives in Norristown. When Lower Merion Township police went to his home on Chain St. to serve a warrant on a bad-check charge, they found the State Police from Collegeville had been there first. Their quarry was already languishing in Montgomery County jail in default of $500 bail on alarney charge.

State police said they arrested Sherid Sunday on the complaint of Kenneth Koffroth, of Oaks, near Norristown. Koffroth charged that when Sherid, who formerly lived at the Koffroth home, removed his clothing from the house, he also took along a bank containing between $0 and $40.

Lower Merion, which wanted Sherid on a charge that he gave two worthless checks, totalling $25, to a local merchant, lodged its warrant as a detainer.

Sherid had a colorful career at Norristown High School, where he was a four-star athlete. The Yankees picked him up and turned him into a big-time star. But Coach Clem McCarthy dropped him from the payroll when the coach said, his frequent visits to New York night clubs with current glamour girls caused him to break training regulations.

New Officers Preside At Bala-Cynwyd Lions

Bala-Cynwyd Lions Club met Tuesday night with the new officers conducting the proceedings for the first time since their election. A report on the Charter Night Dinner, last Wednesday at Bala Golf Club, was made.

Vincent White is asking for volunteers to play in the softball games, scheduled for Friday nights. Meetings will be held every other week during the Summer months, according to an announcement by James Stanton.

HEALTH REPORT

Robert J. Thomas, Lower Merion Township health officer, reported 35 new cases of contagious disease in the township during the week ending June 27.

These included: four chickenpox, three measles and 28 mumps.

Speeding Drive on for Two Weeks But Only Two Speedsters Nabbed

Two weeks after Lower Merion township police began cracking down on traffic violators, for the purpose of reducing speeding in this vicinity, 156 traffic summons had been issued by local magistrates.

Of this number only two were issued for speeding. The other complaints listed were for local parking violations, passing red lights and failing to stop for stop signs.

The campaign began immediately after the meeting of the Township commissioners, on June 18. Samuel W. Gearhart, superintendent of police, said after the meeting that orders would be issued to local traffic police to "hear down on speeders." Each patrolman, he said, was instructed to whistle down every truck and automobile traveling at high speed and to warn the drivers. Warnings were to be followed by a summons, if ignored, and police were carefully instructed to issue a summons immediately in flagrant cases of violations.

The superintendent said that in his opinion a man on duty for a full day sees at least one flagrant violation and a dozen minor ones. "We intend to apply a steady pressure from the top, to reduce accidents," he concluded.

Eighty summonses were issued the first week, with the two for speeding included. Sixty-six went out this week from the office of the sitting magistrate, none of them for speeding.

Safety Council Issues Warning

"Let's make Independence Day independent of traffic accidents by taking it easy, driving or walking."

This was the message of O. C. Beacraft, president of the Montgomery County Safety Council, on the eve of what will be one of the greatest Fourth of July week-ends for travelers in the Nation's history.

"Because the Fourth falls on a Friday," Mr. Beacraft said, "many motorists will start their holiday on Thursday afternoon or evening, and wind up their trip Monday morning, the 7th."

The majority of these cars are far from new, and in the interest of safety travelers are urged to follow these suggestions while driving over the Independence Day week-end:

"Check the condition of your car before planning on a vacation or week-end trip. Have the battery, tires, brakes, wheel alignment and ignition carefully inspected before venturing on an extensive tour with the family."

"Make an early start; delays will bring you into crowded streets and highways with the temptation to try to make up time on the road by excessive speed."

"Don't weave in and out of traffic."

"If fatigue or drowsiness overtakes you at the wheel, surrender the driving job to some other competent operator in the car, or pull up at the side of the road for a short nap or rest."

"If you're drinking, don't drive. If you are driving, don't drink."

"Respect all traffic lights and stop signs; doing so may save a life."

Retired Minister Dies After Fall

The Rev. Pierre C. Warner, 82, died of bronchial pneumonia last Thursday night in the Bryn Mawr Hospital.

The Rev. Warner fractured his left leg in a fall at his home in Bryn Mawr Court Apartments, Bryn Mawr, on June 22.

Pastor of the First Methodist Church of Pottstown from 1910 until he retired in 1935, the Rev. Warner was graduated from Crozer Theological Seminary. He served at the First Baptist Church, Lock Haven, for eight years before going to Pottstown, and was former president of the Pottstown Ministerium and Associated Charities of Pottstown.

He is survived by five daughters, Elizabeth Warner, with whom he lived; Mrs. Benjamin Ludlow, of Bryn Mawr; Edith M. Warner, of Santo Fe, N. M.; Mrs. J. O. Smith, Lexington, Va.; and Mrs. Mary Hartshorne, of Narberth.

Funeral services were held at the Oliver H. Bair Funeral Home, Philadelphia.

BOOKS FOUND IN SAFE DATE BACK 100 YEARS

E. Kenneth Johnson, 305 Bryn Mawr Ave., Bala-Cynwyd, stated this week that the books recently found in an abandoned safe in a Philadelphia warehouse were apparently part of a large and valuable library located in the plant of a point business started in 1844 by the late Samuel H. French.

Johnson is a great-grandson of Samuel French who was a descendant of Thomas French who landed in Philadelphia two years before William Penn.

Lower Merion School Directors Race Crowded—Visibility: Poor; Track: Muddy and Political

The Lower Merion School Board picture became more confused and more political this week.

Where there were three candidates in the field last week seeking the Republican nomination as school director at the September 9 primary, there are five this week.

Where last week the political boys were bragging that the three incumbent school directors would not run again for office, they were not so certain this week.

In fact, the picture was becoming so cloudy with names and undercurrent political motives that it promised to overshadow the other local township contests booked between Republican factions.

The two new aspirants to enter the race this week were Mrs. Richard H. Shryock, Merion housewife and student of education, and James M. Henderson, Carroll Park, friend of Congressman Samuel K. McConnell, Jr., and resident vice president of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland in charge of the Philadelphia branch office. Mrs. Shryock is the third woman to show interest in the school director post. Besides her, there is now Mrs. Anne Cuff, of Bryn Mawr, new entry of last week, and Mrs. Richard Squires, Gladwyne, one of the incumbents who this week stifled the ill-gotten rumors of last week by announcing that she was in the fight to the finish.

The other two incumbents are Everett E. Burlingame, president of the Lower Merion School Board, and John W. Hornsey, Jr., Penn Wynne.

Last week, political leaders and workers in South Ardmore No. 4 (which includes both Penn Wynne and Carroll Park), who are entertaining a notion that they might back Henderson, predicted that Hornsey would issue a statement saying he was stepping aside for good reasons. But Hornsey did not issue the statement last week and so far this week it has not appeared.

Meanwhile Burlingame has withheld any statement and kept them all guessing—even the wishful thinkers who have been trying to force the situation by spreading rumors Burlingame was going to retire.

Whatever may happen ultimately, there is more politics revolving around the school board vacancies than there has been in the quarter of a century since the Republicans swallowed their party pride and let Richard W. Hamilton—a Democrat—take a place on the School Board. Merion now has three candidates in the field. They are Mrs. Shryock and Hyde W. Ballard and W. Ralston Rodgers, who started circulating their petitions last week.

James M. Henderson was born in Philadelphia, July 24, 1903. He was graduated from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in 1925, and today serves as resident vice president of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, in charge of the Philadelphia office. Drive Carefully

On July 4, 1947, the citizens of Lower Merion Township will celebrate the 171st anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

The shocking rise in the number of traffic accidents over the past year makes it imperative that automobile drivers, young and old, recognize the particular importance of accepting personal responsibility for exercising care and caution on the highways.

The Commissioners of Lower Merion Township earnestly seek the co-operation of every citizen in avoiding accidents over the FOURTH OF JULY week-end and thereby helping to make this National Holiday a day of safe celebration of our country's freedom.

RICHARD W. THORINGTON, President.

CARE Aided by School Students

Provide Food, Money For European Countries And China

Private schools on the Main Line have cooperated with the Main Line Committee on CARE to provide packages for Poland, adoption of four schools in China, France, Holland and Poland and contributions of $500 for CARE, according to a recent survey made by the Private School Teachers' Association.

The private schools participating in the project were Harcum Junior College, Shipley School and Baldwin.

Students in the schools have undertaken projects under the sponsorship of organizations such as the Chest World Service Fund.

Food, clothing, school supplies and letters have been sent to needy countries and the students also have given many hours of service in local hospitals, nurseries and camps.

Remittance blanks will be found at Brackbill's store in Suburban Square, Ardmore; the Main Line Cooperative store, 778 Lancaster Ave., Bryn Mawr; and at Bryn Mawr banks.

Patents Awarded to Houdry and Scott

Two Lower Merion Township men were awarded patents this week.

William M. Scott, Jr., of New Guilp Rd., Bryn Mawr, is listed as the inventor of an air blast circuit breaker ruled different in three respects from similar patents. Rights to the invention have been assigned to I. T. E. Circuit Breaker Co.

Eugene P. Houdry, of Mill Creek Rd., Ardmore, is the inventor of a process for producing diolefin, ruled different in six respects from similar patents. Patent rights have been assigned to the Houdry Process Corporation, Wilmington, Del.

County Housing Project Launched This Week

A 400-unit housing project will be launched in Northern Montgomery County this week by the Sunnybrook, Inc., building corporation. Officials of the company stated that 20 houses a week are expected to be completed once construction reaches full speed. The project will cost an estimated $3,500,000, and will be located at Orland Station in the North Hills section of the County.

GOP Tops Democrats In Narberth Registration

According to the traveling registrars who were in Narberth last week, Republicans far outnumber Democrats in the Borough.

The score, as kept by the registrars, showed 215 Republicans, 16 Democrats and four non-partisans.

Wish to enter baby, pet, costume, hobby or curio in July 4 contests? Register at Narberth Electric Co. store, Haverford and Forrest Aves., between 2 and 5 P. M., Wednesday and Thursday.

BABIES, BOOTHS, BURGESS READY FOR CELEBRATION; CROWD TO VIEW FIREWORKS

Contributors List Exceeds That of Previous Years

According to Carl B. Metzger, Jr., treasurer of the Fireworks Fund, the number of individual contributors to this year's expenses exceeds that of any previous celebration. Many citizens, however, are as yet to be heard from, but the committee states it has little doubt of their participation, even if such residents will be away from the Borough on the holiday.

Over and above the amount required for the fireworks bill, a substantial sum is sought for improvements on the playground. Borough Council is blocked in devoting public funds to the recreation field because of the tax situation, but there are some things which should be provided without delay, and it is hoped they will be secured as a result of a generous community collection.

Because of the advanced pressure for Our Town this week, it is only possible to print a preliminary list of sponsors, as follows:

Miller to Make The Welcoming Address

A welcoming address by Burgess Richard L. Miller will open the annual Fourth of July festivities at the Narberth Playground this Friday morning at 9:50 A. M. Miller will be introduced by Sterling M. Chain, chairman of the Narberth Day activities.

Burgess Miller's address will be followed by the salute to the Flag, led by Burns F. Best, representing the Harold D. Speakman Post of the American Legion, and the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner," led by Mrs. Joseph Baker, regent of the Narberth chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Booths Open at 10. All booths, sponsored by churches, clubs and other organizations of Narberth, will be open at 10 A. M. The booths will sell hot dogs, sandwiches, potato salad, soft drinks, lemonade, pretzels, candy, ice cream, popples, doughnuts and coffee, as well as home-made pies and cakes.

Members of Girl Scout troops in Narberth will sell balloons and will also have charge of the Kiddie Corner, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Watts and Mrs. Raymond Kroug. There will also be fancy apron and white elephant tables.

Fishing at the fish pond will also begin at 10 A. M. A beautiful garden spot of seedlings, vines and plants will be featured.

The annual Baby Show will start at 10:15 A. M., followed by the costume parade at 10:30, and the hobby and curio shows at 11 A. M. Pastors of all Narberth churches will judge the hobby and curio shows.

Sports Program at 11. Sports and races will get under way at 11 A. M., when all five groups, each in separate lanes, start their races. Prizes for the boys and girls will be given for first, second and third places, but no one can win more than one prize in any event. The pet show will be held at 1:30 P. M., with prizes awarded for many different classes.

Mrs. Larry Grey, assistant chairman of the Day committee; Mrs. Harry Hollar, secretary; Mrs. Chain, treasurer; Miss Nellie Fratantoni, purchasing agent, and R. Rollins, grounds chairman, will be stationed on the grounds to offer assistance.

A scheduled Main Line League baseball game between Narberth and Manoa will be played on the ball field at 3 P. M.

At dusk, one of the greatest fireworks shows ever held on the playground will be set off, and thousands are expected to witness the display.

Over and above actual costs of the celebration, all funds collected for both the daytime program and the fireworks display will be used for improvements to the playground.

Rezoning Denied In West Manayunk

On the petition of the Ashland Avenue Methodist Church and residents of West Manayunk, the right of Joseph Passerola to erect a garage and baling warehouse on Washington Ave. has been denied by the Lower Merion Township Board of Commissioners.

In order to erect a garage on the 100-by-150 foot lot he owns in the area, Passerola asked that the area be rezoned from R-6 residential to C-2 commercial. The church property abuts on his property. In their petition the residents set forth that there were sufficient predominantly commercial areas readily available, and that therefore the district should remain residential.

Nancie Kennedy Married Saturday To J. McCafferty

White flowers and ferns formed a lovely background on the porch of the rectory of St. Colman's Church, Ardmore, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, for the wedding of Miss Nancie Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Forrest Kennedy, of 134 St. Paul's Rd., Ardmore, to Joseph E. McCafferty, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McCafferty, of 128 Conway Ave., Narberth. The Rev. Philip Scully performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown featuring an illusion neckline outlined in seed pearls, a fitted bodice and a full skirt ending in a long train. Her finger-tip length illusion veil was held with a crown of the illusion, and she carried a white prayer book with white orchids and a shower of ribbons and stephanotis.

Miss Patricia Tully, of Overbrook, who served as maid of honor and only attendant for the bride, wore a yellow taffeta gown made with cap sleeves and a full skirt. She wore a garland of flowers in her hair to match those in her bouquet. Mrs. Kennedy wore a pale blue crepe gown with a picture hat of tufted straw and a corsage of yellow roses. The mother of the bridegroom chose a navy blue crepe model with white accessories. Her bouquet was also of yellow roses.

William O'Sullivan, of West Philadelphia, formerly of Narberth, served as best man, and the ushers included Alexander McClinck, of Narberth; Jack McCalla, of Cynwyd; Jack Joyce, of Ardmore, and William Kennedy, brother of the bride.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Upon their return from a honeymoon in Cape May, N. J., the couple will reside in Ardmore.

CHOOSING A CAREER

SWITCHBOARD TRAINING

By FLORENCE UTT
Director Florence Utt Switchboard School

A switchboard training course offers you one of the most fascinating and interesting professions open to girls and women of all ages, from 16 to 60.

In selecting this profession you are making a wise choice as an entering wedge for a successful business career. Surprisingly few people recognize the importance, the fascination, the opportunity of switchboard operations.

The telephone is not a commonplace mechanical instrument; it is the channel through which personal and important contacts are made. The switchboard is the hub around which any business or institution revolves. The operator of this board must impart the personality and alertness, the integrity and desire to serve, inspired by the management.

Because of the importance of the switchboard operator to the management it is absolutely necessary that she received careful and proper training. She not only needs to be trained in the skillful operation of the mechanics of the board but also she needs training in what to say and how to say it—tone, voice, tact, courtesy and personality development.

A switchboard training course gives all of this plus training for receptionist duties.

Girls and women trained this way found positions of responsibility in all kinds of business offices, Government offices, factories, hotels, apartment houses, banks, airports, resorts, etc.

They are qualified to pass civil service exams. U. S. Government salary for P.B.X. operators is $146 a month.

Girls and women now employed

in office work will reap abundant additional dividends by widening their score of knowledge, in adding switchboard operating to their accomplishments.

Mary L. Wagner Becomes Bride In Pretty Ceremony Saturday

A pretty wedding in All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, took place at 6 o'clock last Friday evening, when Miss Mary Louise Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gordon Wagner, of "Hillbrook," Penn. Valley, became the bride of Paul Schneible, son of Mrs. Ivan M. Schneible, of Greenwich, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Gibson Bell.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown fashioned with a square neckline and bracelet length sleeves both trimmed with rose point lace. Her long veil fell from a coronet of the lace over the skirt and train. She carried a bouquet of Madonna lilies and stephanotis.

bridesmaids included Miss Barbara Hume, Miss Louise Van Keuren, Miss Janet Wright and Miss Barbara Leinath. All wore aqua taffeta and marquisette dresses with geraniums in the head wreaths and bouquets.

Stephen R. Schneible acted as best man for his brother, and the ushers were Gerard A. Perkins, Norman S. Bemis, Armando Falconi, Robert E. Wagner and Earl G. Wagner, Jr.

Mrs. Wagner wore a dusty rose gown of crepe and lace with a matching flowered hat and a sarracenia corsage. The mother of the bridegroom chose a print model with a small black hat and an orchid corsage.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Upon their return from a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Syracuse, N. Y.

Burton Frith Hurd To Be Married

Miss Elizabeth Anne Hurd will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Mary Lou McFall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. McFall, of Pittsburgh, to her brother, Burton Frith Hurd, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gordon Hurd, of "Homewood," Penn. Valley, which will take place Saturday morning, July 12, in the First Presbyterian Church, Cape May, N. J. The Rev. Allen W. Lenz assisted by the Rev. Allan MacLachlan Frew, will perform the ceremony.

Mr. Hurd will serve as best man for his son, and ushers will include Thomas P. Knapp, Jr., and Dr. J. S. Robert McFall, brother of the bride.

A wedding breakfast at the Colonial will follow the ceremony.

Marilyn Mitchell Weds New Yorker In Wynnewood

Colorful Reception
Follows Saturday
Afternoon Ceremony

In a double ring ceremony in All Saints Church, Wynnewood, Saturday afternoon, Miss Marilyn Mitchell, daughter of Mr. Viola Scott Mitchell, of Narberth, and Mr. Francis V. Mitchell, of Merion, became the bride of James A. Delbridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Delbridge, of Batavia, N. Y.

Tall ferns, white snapdragons and gladioli, formed the background for the service, with the Rev. Dr. Gibson Bell officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with an illusion yoke, joined to the fitted bodice with seed pearls. The model was also fashioned with long pointed sleeves and a full skirt ending in a train. Her finger-tip veil was attached to a net cap by a wreath of white stephanotis. She carried a prayer book with thalassopsis orchids and streamers.

Miss Eleanor Klapper, of Narberth, who served as maid of honor, wore a model of pale green moire, made with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Mrs. Dickson B. Baldrige, of Wynnewood, and Miss Catherine Olt, of Dayton, O., as bridesmaids, wore similar gowns in deeper shades of green. All wore picture hats with velvet streamers, and carried colonial bouquets of white gladioli and stephanotis.

Mrs. Mitchell's choice was a gown of ice blue crepe with a matching hat of illusion net, and a corsage of pink rubrum lilies. The mother of the bridegroom wore a powder blue gown and a hat of black tulle. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Edward D. Gorton, of Batavia, N. Y., acted as best man, and the ushers included James R. Johnson, of Springfield, O., and William P. Foote, of Cleveland Heights, O.

An informal reception at the home of the bride's father followed the ceremony. Mr. Delbridge and his bride are spending their honeymoon in Quebec, Canada.

NARBERTH, MANOA BATTLE FOR LOOP LEAD ON FOURTH AT BOROUGH DIAMOND

By HARRY ELLSWORTH

Come the Fourth of July, all of the fireworks in Narberth won't be shot off in the evening.

Plenty of explosive action will be generated in the afternoon, when Manoa and the defending champion Boroughs, currently tied for the Eastern Division lead in the Main Line League, meet in the first crucial diamond battle of the season.

While Narberth's George Davidson was suffering his first defeat of the year at Drexel Hill, 9-3, on Sunday, Manoa was winning its fifth straight game in posting Gladwyne, 6-5, and the Ravenscroft, 7-1.

Joe Pappey, from Temple, or Nick DeFranks, West Chester's no-hit pitcher, will probably go to the mound for Frank Matthews' club while any one of four hurlers—Davidson, Albie Becker, Charlie Gunther or Charley Schreiner—may pitch for Narberth.

Both the Eastern section pacesetters have had week-end rowers. On Saturday, Ardmore's pesky Lions play at Narberth while on Sunday afternoon, Vic Newburg brings his Gladwyne squad into the Narberth ball park.

Manoa plays at Drexel Hill on Saturday. The Hillers found themselves on the week end, winning from both Gladwyne and Narberth.

catcher, clouded a base-clearing four-master as Manoa drubbed the Hare-Mueller club, 16-4.

Narberth reached the hitting high of the year with 22 bingles in the 20-3 slaughter of West Manayunk.

Albie Becker, the winner's pitcher, and Tony Bender, second baseman, led the attack on Bill West and Joe Zak with four hits apiece.

Ralph Salvatore, fleet-footed Ardmore third baseman, broke his glasses while tagging Manoa's Jack Miller on Saturday. Salvatore remained in the game, and even cashed in a hit without his cheaters.

Wednesday night's double ended in a hit without his cheaters.

Drexel Hill's ace twosome, lefty Jack Creamy and right-hander Gene Conway posted the Hillers' double week-end triumph.

In downing Collegeville on Saturday, pitcher Harry Dessert, of Wayne, clipped in with a single, double and a two-run homer into center field.

LANDSDOWNE PLAYS AT NUNAN-SLOOK

Nearing the end of its American Legion League campaign, the Nunan-Sloot Post nine of Oakmont will oppose Lansdowne at the Veterans' Park field at Brookline next Tuesday night.

Nunan-Sloot, beaten by East Lansdowne after scoring 1 straight league victory, rebounded to upset Upper Darby. The Oakmonters will conclude their regular league season by playing at Glenolden on Wednesday evening and at Collingdale the following night.

BROOKLINE TIES MERION

The Brookline tossers tied Merion Generals, defending champions, for the Suburban Softball League lead last Friday, defeating Merion for the third time, 4-3, behind Bob Dougherty's seven-hit hurling.

Dougherty, former University of Pennsylvania basketball coach, previously had confined his softball prowess to the outfield. However, when Walt White was hospitalized by an appendectomy, Dougherty took over the mound and limited Merion to seven hits while his mates collected 10 from Lefty Trowbridge and Norm Butz, Merion mounds-men.

SPORTS SCENE

By JACK FORD

It took the unlucky 13 jinx to finally halt the Nunan-Sloot Post baseball team, but since that Oaklanders' again are picking up back into the Eastern Delaware County Division of the American Legion League title without even trying.

Nunan-Sloot Post No. 338 baseballers consistently won the South-eastern Pennsylvania title in the American Legion tournament long before World War II was even dreamed of. If we may end a sentence a proposition with. Albie Corning coached the Nunan nine then, and Albie turned out some of the sweetest teams ever to represent this sector.

It wasn't necessary to be a member of the American Legion in those days—but such participation helped to become a Legionnaire. Thus, each Oakland ball player is both an active American Legion member and a former Haverford High athlete.

Nunan-Sloot had surged to 12 straight triumphs before East Lansdowne finally snapped that victory streak. The Oaklanders immediately noticed back to defeat Upper Darby, 10-2, and then embark on another victory streak with but three league games remaining.

Their March story to Joe Petron's no-name story to Joe Petron's no-name story in passing, and Eddie Marino, ex-Haverford High, is business managers track at a are business managers track at the Oakland nine. And, when he isn't playing third base, Ken Keen acts as captain and manager of the team.

We digress. Last year, Nunan-Sloot won the Eastern Delaware County division, then eliminated Chester, Western Division representative, in a playoff for the American Legion League title. In addition, the Oaklanders won 10 straight to capture the American Baseball League title in the Haverford Township Adult Recreation program.

Just about every member of the Oakland outfit is, according to Pere Petron, a former Fordian. At least four Nunan-Sloot slingers are attending colleges or universities in this area.

Sam Venuto, catcher, plans to enter University of Georgia next fall. Pitchers include Ray Harshbarger, Ed Galt and St. Comberg. The last-named now is attending Penn. Marty Jones is at second, with Ken Keen at third and Rudy Scubba, shortstop.

The Nunan-Sloot nine plays home games at Veterans' Park, Brookline. Only one more league game will be played there—next Tuesday, when Lansdowne invades the Brookline ball orchard. Concluding their league campaign—in a final warmup before the Shaugnessy playoffs—the Oaklanders will play at Glenolden next Wednesday night and at Collingdale the following evening.

Dr. Irwin R. Demar, that ebullient, effervescent, motor-mouthed pitcher, is in the news again. The good doc takes issue with Harry Ellsworth, our capable Main Line League correspondent. Complainingly, the doctor writes:

"No doubt your intentions were of the best, but a slight correction is in order in your column of June 26."

"Albie Becker may be a good pitcher, but I doubt greatly that he could strike out 14 Ardmore batters. If the number listed is correct, they should be credited to George Davidson. Although associated with the Ardmore club, I think Davidson is quite a pitcher and expect him to go higher in the near future. With a little strengthening and a little more, I think Ardmore is going to be trouble for all the big boys."

"Sincerely,
"P. S.—The Becker combination worked the previous day against Gladwyne.

St. Thomas Nine Upset Victor In Mont-Del League

Bill Rodgers' St. Thomas team of Villanova upset Good Counsel of Bryn Mawr for the first time, 4-0, in a Mont-Del League League game Sunday at Gavett Hill.

In another loop game Monday, St. Philomena defeated St. Lucy, of West Manayunk, 7-4, at Lansdowne Field. Two tie games also were played, and the situation has become so confusing that officials of the Mont-Del circuit are contemplating changing their system of scoring so a winner can be declared.

St. Laurence, of Highland Park, and Good Counsel played to a 3-3 stalemate. St. Colman's and St. Charles, of Clifton Heights, battled to a 7-7 draw, and St. Margaret's, of Narberth, and St. Thomas finally called it quits Thursday because of darkness, at the end of the fourth inning.

On Friday, St. Margaret's rolled to an 8-3 triumph over St. Lucy's at McMoran Field, and St. Laurence upset St. Philomena at Drexel Hill, 10-3.

Wanda Klein and Alexander Kime Wed in Rosemont

The marriage of Miss Wanda H. Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Klein, of Drexel Hill, to Alexander Kime, of 2815 St. Marys Rd., Ardmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kime, of Larchmont, took place at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond Jump.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown featuring inserts of lace at the back of the gown, extending from the neckline to the end of the long train. The puffed sleeves were also of lace. Her finger-tip length tulle veil was held with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Theodore Konieszka, of Drexel Hill, served as matron of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaid was Mrs. Kay Fortman. Both wore gowns of blue marquisette made with bertha collars, peplums and full skirts. They wore garden hats and carried bouquets of rose, gladioli, delphinium and baby's breath.

The bride's niece, Patricia Konieszka, was flower girl. She wore a long white frock of marquisette made on the same lines as those of the attendants, with a tiara of net and orange blossoms in her hair and a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

Sidney Kane acted as best man for his brother, and the usher was Philip Egerly, of Ardmore.
